FALL PLANTING

Much has been said; we sum it all up in this:—Every item in this list is suitable for transplanting in early Autumn. In addition to having the foliage of evergreens for winter beauty, they usually make a better growth next year than if not planted until spring.

SHADE TREES

NORWAY MAPLE

OWING to the earlier demand for Evergreens, we have not completed our counts of Deciduous shade and Street trees for fall planting. We should be glad to make special quotations, however, on any items as we have a complete list. We expect shortly to publish a special price-list of Deciduous Trees of all kinds, which we should be glad to mail on request.

DECIDUOUS SHRUBS AND ROSES

SPIRAEA VAN
HOUTTE

AS OUR many clients who have favored us with orders in this class of nursery stock are aware, we have as complete a list as any in the country, and at prices which prove attractive. Please write us for quotations if you are interested.

HARDY PERENNIALS

PEONY FESTIVA
MAXIMA

MANY varieties are much more likely to succeed if planted in the fall, and we have a complete list of Perennials to offer this season and would appreciate the opportunity of making quotations.

HEDGES

FRUITS

WE OFFER a complete list of Apples, Pears, Peaches, Cherries, Plums, Grapes, Quinces. Both dwarf and standard trees. We also have a limited quantity of Exotic Grape Vines for Graperies under glass. Prices will be gladly quoted on request.

BARGAINS IN EVERGREENS

PINES AND SPRUCES FOR SCREENS, HEDGES AND MASS PLANTING

FROM our complete assortments, we can offer the following Evergreens—several times transplanted and healthy, but not sufficiently branched and bushy to be used for landscape work or fine ornamental planting. They are, however, ideal for mass planting, screens, hedges, etc. And there is a large demand for this stock.

The very special net prices quoted are less than half regular wholesale prices for the same size and variety in standard grades.

This stock is located in our western nurseries not far from Chicago, and we are shipping carloads and less than carloads to New York and the East.

If you can use any items on this list, we might include your order in a car lot shipment and so the transportation cost would be very low and you would be sure of receiving your stock promptly and in good condition.
